

FRANK TALKS

FAKE NEWS AND ITS IMPACT ON THE REAL WORLD

When: Saturday, April 21st at 1:00 pm

Where: The Huachuca City Public Library

What: A facilitated discussion about Fake News and its impact – a FRANK Talk

Who: Jamie Bowen, Arizona State University, Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication will facilitate.

Jamie Bowen is a second year doctoral student at ASU in the Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication. He is an associate faculty member teaching news writing and reporting and graphic design. His research interests include propaganda theory and post 9/11 American wars

What is a FRANK Talk? FRANK Talks are free, thought-provoking discussions on important issues facing our communities. The goal of FRANK Talks is to inspire people to practice the skills of citizenship – to listen respectfully and engage thoughtfully with one another. FRANK Talks are made possible by a partnership between Arizona Humanities and the Arizona State Library.

The content of the material presented and the ideas and opinions of participants do not necessarily reflect the views of the Huachuca City Public Library or the Town of Huachuca City.

