Huachuca City Celebrates Independence Day

June 27th, 2018 / Huachuca City, AZ –

Huachuca City will host a bang-up Independence Day celebration at Leffingwell Park on July 4th from 3:00 pm until dark.

The whole community is invited to this family-friendly event. The local teen band “Perception” will kick off the event at 3:00 pm. There will be fun games and face painting for the kids as well as activities that the whole family can enjoy. Other events that promise to provide lots of entertainment include a pie-eating contest, a cake-walk and a dunk tank! Mayor Ken Taylor, as well as other various town officials to include the Chief of Police, have promised to take their chances on the hot seat. If you are worried about the heat, fear no more. Cool off in the pool! Admission is free and it will be open from 2:00 pm to 7:00 pm.

In addition to the fun stuff offered by the town, there will be other organizations on hand to provide their support. Tombstone High School JROTC will present the colors at 5:00 pm immediately followed by Benson Butterfield Rodeo Queen, Preslee West, who will sing the national anthem. Other participants include: University of Arizona Cooperative Extension, Cochise County 4H/Summer Splash 4H Camp, Huachuca City Lions Club, and Huachuca City Elementary School.

Hotdogs and chips will be served from 4:00 pm until 6:00 pm, or until supplies run out. Local band, “Panic Station” will take the stage at 4:15 and play until 8:00 pm. Our celebration will conclude at dark with a 15-20 minute fireworks display.

This community event is free to the public and we urge Huachuca City residents to attend. Let’s celebrate together! We would like to thank all the organizations that are participating in our event as well as our sponsors, Walmart and local business Mr. Shed! We appreciate your contributions! We would also like to wish everyone a very happy and safe 4th of July.
